REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the prior art discloses a method for increasing transmission bandwidth for use with a computer processor and a mechanism for transmitting a plurality of simultaneous digital streams of information over a shared transmission medium comprising the following features: converting incoming streams of binary information, in the form of "0"s and "1"s on each of a plurality of lines, into corresponding digitally-represented streams of "no-play" and "play" commands; rendering the information in each of the plurality of incoming lines unique by assigning to each "no-play" and "play" command of a respective incoming line, a corresponding prime number Hertz frequency component, so as to provide a plurality of prime number Hertz frequency component streams; simultaneously transmitting the unique prime number Hertz frequency component streams of each of the plurality of incoming lines over the shared transmission medium in the form of a "disharmonic"; and receiving the transmitted chord and separating each of the plurality of lines contained therein, so as to convert each of the plurality of lines into streams of binary information in the form of "0"s and "1"s, by programming each line to receive only digitally-represented audio bits corresponding to the prime Hertz frequency component assigned thereto.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
